DESPERATE RESISTANCE IS

In Belgium and France the Germans Are Striving to Prevent an Immediate Collapse of Their Defensive Positions, But on All Salient Positions They Are Being Gradually But Slowly Forced Back-The Liberation of Rumania Has Been Begun by the Entente Forces.

(By The Associated Press.)

On the northern Italian battle front forces are tending toward the slow but sure evacuation of the invaded districts by the enemy forces.

Between the Oise and Sierra rivers The Germans in Belgium and France still are stubbornly resisting the attempts of the Entente allied forces to break through their lines and bring about an immediate collapse of their defensive positions.

On the whole they are succeeding but nevertheless on all salient positions under attack the enemy line gradually, but slowly, is being forced backward.

Between the Oise and Sierra rivers American naval gunners with sixteeninch guns have joined the French in their efforts to hammer their way northeastward toward Hirson, one of the key point positions on the German line. American shells from these guns are being hurled against both Veryins and Rozoy. Further progress has been made by the French in this region, but only after the hardest kind of fighting.
